MACKEY DENIES IT.

But Dana Brown Willing to Swear that it is True.

Mr. Will U. Mackey called at the Appeal office yesterday to as certain who was the APPEAL's authority for the st-tement that he said in the event of a other war he would fight for the -outh.

Dana Brown, of the U S Mi t, was given as the authority Mr. Mackey denied it unequivocally, and stated that he had taken the oat of alleglance to the United States when made Captain of the arson Guard.

The denial and explanation is here given, as the APPEAL has no disposition to treat Mr. Mackey unfairly in the canvass.

He then went to the U.S. Mint and met Mr. Brown. When asked if he had ever heard M . Mackey make the statement attributed to him in the APPEAL, Mr. Brown re-

"Yes, Will, I did hear you make it. You made it to me four years ago when we roomed in the same house in the South end of town I recollect it quite distinctly, and lectured you at the time, as it struck me as a bad break for a young man to make."

"I never expected you were an enemy of mine."

"I am not your enemy," said Brown; "I have always been your friend in everthing but politics, but I can't endorse such language as you used."

"I never used it "

"You did use it, and you used it

"I'll swear I didn't."

"Whenever you do so I will swear that you did You have simply forgotten what you said, and probably when you spoke as you did you never expected to run for office."

Mr. Mackey still denied saying it, and walked out.

The APPEAL then interviewed members of the company of which Mr. Mackey is Captain, and asked under what sircumstances he took the oath, and one of the members in good standing in the company

"He was very reluctant to take the oath, and held off a long time. but he wanted to be Captain, and took it."

Mr. Mackey is placed at some oats, barley and bran for sale at disadvantage in this city, there being Lo Democratic organ here, and the APPEAL, in order to give him a fair field in the discussion hereby enders its columns for anything he may choose to write in his own defense over his signature.

ED. APPEAL:-I wish to deny in toto the charge made, against me in yesterday morning's APPEAL. Such a remark was never made by me. I came to Nevada when I was four years old, in 1866, and the many friends I have made since will bear witness to my loyalty. It is worth while to mention, perhaps, that I am at present serving my second term as Captain of the carson Guard, and have taken the official oath re-

George Cassidy.

Last evening there was a good audience at the Opera House, to hear H n. George Cassidy, Cassily spoke on the issue of the campaign and was vociferously cheered.

Cassidy is always an "entertaining cuss" on his feet and never fails of an audience in Carson. The Democrats received him with music and torches and bonfires.

CASSIDY'S DIPLOMACY.

Two Shining Examples from the Massive Brain of the Base

Rang Sage. The following good story is told by the Enterprise:

George W. Cassidy started upon his political career in Eureka, Lander county, in 1872.

He appeared before the Democratic County Convention as a Candidate for State Senator, being opposed for the nomination by John H. Dennis, present editor of the Evening Chronicle. (assidy was running the Eureka Sentinel, an John Dennis was connected with the Austin Receille, we believe. It was before the division of Lancounty, out of which was formed Eureka county, Cassidy, beat Dennis for the nomination by one

John O Darrow, a lawyer of splendid attainments, and partner of Judge Hawley, was nominated by the opposition to Cassidy,

Darrow challenged Cassidy to stump the county with him in joint

Cassidy had not appeared before an audience up to that time, and did not dare meet Darrow, and it was political suicide to refuse.

It was then that George W. Cassidy displayed those extraordinary traits of diplomacy which have been made famous by his record since. He literally "denied the allegation and defied the allegator."

He accepted the challenge and being the challenged party, he cut B and Fund of 1881... out the race. He made appoint- I dian -cool und. ments for joint discussions in Mc-Garry, Diamond Station, Alpha Station, Huntet's Creek, Fish Springs Valley, Bald Mountain and several other places where there was no one to address but italian charcoal burners, who could't speak Enligsh, and reserved Battle Mountain, Palisade, Austin and Eureka, the only towns in the county, for the lastby which time he hoped to be able to make a speech.

Darrow advised Cassidy to climb Prospecct Mountain at night and practice his voice alone, and they did not meet in joint debate.

The question that agitated Lander county in 1872 was the proposition to cut it up into two counties at the ensuing Legislature, which met in 1873 Battle Mountain with the line of the railroad; that is, by dividing the county with an east and west line, and the people of Eureka wanted north and south line-as it stands

Mr Cassidy had to dodge committing himself, and he also had to speak at Battle Mountain. He spoke, and his hearers evidently failed to understand him, for on election day, at about 2 o'clock, Diplomacy George recived a dispatch in Eureka from Battle Mountain stating that they were ready to vote, and "How do you stand on the division of the county?" Answer. This was a poser. But it only started a few drops of perspiraton from his political brow The Base Range sage answered as follows: "Mr. Cassidy has gone to Fish Springs Valley; will bring in that precinct solid,"

This dispatch was signed by a

Regarding Judge Wells.

The statement made by the Tribune last evening that we have penly refused to vote for Judge Wells is true.

We do not care to publish our reasons for so doing, but they will be found in the records of the District Court of this city, and in the Eighth Nevada Reports.

That the editor of this paper ever asked anyone else to vote against him, or ever said he would vote for any Judge on the Democratic ticket is not true.

If the Tribune is friendly to Judge Wells and wants to see him elected, we advise it not to press this discussion.

"Leaf by Leaf" etc.

William Pickler announces that he has withdrawn from the Democratic ticket. "Leaf by leaf the roses fall."

EDITOR OF THE APPEAL:-Notice ing Mr. Grossman's article in this day's issue, I would state in reply that, if he would only endeavor to call certain facts to mind, he would recollect that he and I had a wanted to make a county running settlement some eight months ago in the presence of a prominent merchant of this city.

ALL SORTS.

John W. Mackay is expected on the Comstock soon. The editor of the APPEAL left for Oroville last evening and will be absent three or four days. There were three horrible collisions on Eastern roads yester day, fifteen or twenty persons were killed and several wounded.

Two urchins from Virginia arrived in Carson last night via the hay-wagon line and informed the the constabulary, when closely questioned by them, that they nad left the paternal roof to seek positions as dish-washers in various parts of the country. Both were severely lectured by Judge Pine, and will be sent back this morning.
